Cars and Caves Car Show to raise money for Shriners Hospital

The Chanhassen AutoPlex has teamed up with the Zuhrah Shrine Horsemen to raise money for Shriners Hospital Twin Cities.

“By capitalizing on the popularity of our car shows, I believe we can positively impact the quality of life for children in our community,” said show Committee Chair Tony Mertes.

One hundred percent of proceeds from The Saturday, June 30 show will be donated to the pediatric othopaedic needs of area children.

The free Cars and Caves Car Show runs the last Saturday of every month April through September from 8a.m. to 12 p.m. and Wednesday nights from 5p.m. to 8 p.m. The next show is June 30.

“Show Car owners and spectators can park on site and view some of the coolest muscle, exotic, classic, custom and antique cars in the area together in one place,” said Elaine Wilson, AutoPlex Community Relations.

Besides music, prizes, food, and photos with Batman or Scooby Doo, the public is invited to tour some of the lavish garage condos on site.

“The show is a favorite among locals and Southwest Metro visitors with its open-air setting and casual ambience,” said Wilson. “Bring your show car and your family and friends for a memorable car lovers’ get together.”
